

2022 Taxable payment annual report

Dear Valued Client,

If you carry on a business, please read on.

Taxable payments annual reports (TPAR) for the 2022 financial year are due by 28 August 2022.

You may need to lodge a TPAR to report payments you made to contractors if your business provides:

- building and constructions services
- cleaning services
- courier or road freight services
- information technology (IT) services
- security, investigation, or surveillance services.

You can find more information at ATO website ato.gov.au/tpar.

How to lodge

You can lodge electronically using business software that offers TPAR.

If you don't have business software that offers TPAR, you can lodge online using the TPAR online form.
